

Lesson 13 – Matthew 16:21-17:24

Day 1: Matthew 16:21-23

Imagine yourself as one of Jesus' close disciples. How would you have reacted to him predicting his death and resurrection?

Day 2: Matthew 16:24-28

What do you think it looks like to take up your cross daily, as Jesus tells his disciples to do in this passage?

Are there things in this world that you are prone to treasure over Christ? What are they?

Day 3: Matthew 17:1-13

What are the disciple's response to the events in this passage (known as the Transfiguration)?

How do you feel like you respond to Jesus when you see him clearly through his word, or a sermon, or another person?

Day 4: Matthew 17:14-21

Why do you think Jesus emphasizes faith so much in this passage?

What are some of the mountains in your own life?

Day 5: Matthew 17:22-23

How your life be different if Christ had not died on the cross and rose again like he says he will in these verses?
