The Weak, Strong, Right and Wrong

Romans 1:17; 4:2-5; 6:13; 2 Corinthians 5:21

In our relationships we tend to want to be right and appear strong.

Cheer up! You are worse than you think!

In our relationship with God we are weak and strong.

Big Idea: Jesus makes a way for the weak and the wrong to be made right and strong.

Cheer up! God's Spirit works in your weakness!

Questions to discuss

- What does God think of you right now? What is His expression on His face?
- What can you do to change His opinion of you?

Memory Verse:

“For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, ‘The righteous shall live by faith.’” – Romans 1:17 (ESV)

Other Scripture: Romans 1:16-17, 4:1-5, 6:13; 2 Corinthians 5:21, 12:9

Further Study:

Read: Romans 1:16-17; 4:15 and 6:13 in your group or with at least one other person.

1. Have someone read it while everyone reads along.
2. Have someone else read it while everyone else listens.
3. Have someone recount the text from memory in their own words.

Discuss:

1. What does the passage reveal about God?
2. What does the passage reveal about humanity?

Act:

1. If this passage is from God, what should change about how you live?
2. Who needs to hear the truth of this Scripture that you can share it with this week?
Identify a time this week when you might have the opportunity to share with them.
