What do you do when the world around you has changed?

- We praise God because we have been chosen to be right where we are.
- We praise God because His great mercy has given us life now and forever.
- We praise God because we are being kept for salvation.
- We praise God because our trials are for a purpose.
- We praise God because we have been saved!
- We praise God because we have been filled with great joy.
- We praise God because the Gospel has been revealed to us.
