

A man in a workshop, wearing a grey shirt and suspenders, is focused on working on a bicycle wheel. The background is dark and filled with various tools and equipment, creating a sense of a busy, hands-on environment. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the man's concentration and the intricate details of the wheel.

Living a Life of Power

James 5:13-18

A life of prayer is a life of power.

- Prayer is power for every circumstance.
- Through prayer, we experience God's restoration.
- God shows His power through our persistence.
- God is relational: he uses conversation to bring transformation.

Other Scripture: Matthew 7:7-8; Mark 11:24; Philippians 4:6-7; 1 John 5:14-15; 1 Peter 5:7; Psalm 34:17-18; Psalm 145:18-19; Jeremiah 33:3

Further Study

Read: James 5:13-18 in your group or with at least one other person.

1. Have someone read it while everyone reads along.
2. Have someone else read it while everyone else listens.
3. Have someone recount the text from memory in their own words.

Discuss:

1. What does the passage reveal about God?
2. What does the passage reveal about humanity?

Act:

1. If this passage is from God, what should change about how you live?
2. Who needs to hear the truth of this Scripture that you can share it with this week? Identify a time this week when you might have the opportunity to share with them.
