Don't Forget to Remember

Psalm 103

“Our attempt at exposition is commenced under an impressive sense of the utter impossibility of doing justice to so sublime a composition; we call upon our soul and all that is within us to aid in the pleasurable task; but, alas, our soul is finite, and our all of mental faculty far too little for the enterprise. There is too much in the Psalm for a thousand pens to write, it is one of those all-comprehending Scriptures which is a Bible in itself, and it might alone almost suffice for the hymn-book of the church.”
- Charles H. Spurgeon, The Treasury of David

Three Reasons to Remember:

1. His glory is for our good. (vv. 1-5)
2. His mercy is our only merit. (vv. 6-18)
3. His kingdom is our calling. (vv. 19-22)

Other Scripture: Exodus 34:1-9; Luke 1:46-45; Matthew 6:9-13

Further Study

Read: Psalm 103 in your group or with at least one other person.

1. Have someone read it while everyone reads along.
2. Have someone else read it while everyone else listens.
3. Have someone recount the text from memory in their own words.

Discuss:

1. What does the passage reveal about God?
2. What does the passage reveal about humanity?

Act:

1. If this passage is from God, what should change about how you live?
2. Who needs to hear the truth of this Scripture that you can share it with this week?
Identify a time this week when you might have the opportunity to share with them.
