Remembered for Good

Luke 10:25-37

What does it take? What does it take to be remembered for good?

- Compassion
- Boldness
- Sacrificial love

Why does it matter? Why does it matter that we are remembered for good?

- Our neighbors need it.
- Jesus' reputation depends on it.
- Our salvation demands it.

How do we do it? How do live a life that will be remembered for good?

- Faith in His Word
- Following in His footsteps
- Filled with His Spirit

Jesus is the perfect "Good Samaritan".

- His reputation is built by His relatives.
- He is judged by human misconceptions and expectations.
- His love is sacrificial.
- His actions are fueled by His compassion.
- His forgiveness is a blank check only He can cash.

Further Study

Read: Luke 10:25-37 in your group or with at least one other person.

1. Have someone read it while everyone reads along.
2. Have someone else read it while everyone else listens.
3. Have someone recount the text from memory in their own words.

Discuss:

1. What does the passage reveal about God?
2. What does the passage reveal about humanity?

Act:

1. If this passage is from God, what should change about how you live?
2. Who needs to hear the truth of this Scripture that you can share it with this week? Identify a time this week when you might have the opportunity to share with them.
