Walking With Destiny

Esther 4

“Mordecai contemplated this bitter necessity. He gazed upon it till his eyes were a fountain of tears. He studied the situation till the iron entered into his very soul. Then he made his appeal to Queen Esther to stand forward as the savior of her people.” - James Hastings

The faithful sovereignty of God

“On our feet we may have arguments about it, but on our knees we are all agreed.” -- J.I. Packer

The sovereignty of God as seen in Scripture, is the belief in God’s intimate and intentional knowledge of all things before they take place and His supreme power that brings to fruition His perfect and gracious will.

“In the infinite wisdom of the Lord of all the earth, each event falls with exact precision into its proper place in the unfolding of His divine plan. Nothing, however small, however strange, occurs without His ordering, or without its particular fitness for its place in the working out of His purpose; and the end of all shall be the manifestation of His glory, and the accumulation of His praise.” - B.B. Warfield

The foundation for trusting God is resting in the sovereignty of God.

God has placed you where you are for a reason!

Let us brace ourselves to our duties, and so bear ourselves that if the British Empire and its Commonwealth last for a thousand years, men will still say, “This was their finest hour.” - Winston Churchill, June 18, 1940

Esther reminds us that there is a perfect mediator interceding for His people.
