The Church

Misconceptions of the church:

- The church as your “as needed” fill-up
- The church as your weekly escape from life
- The church as your professional quick fix
- The church as an entertainment producer.

Ask not what your church can do for you but ask what you can do for your church and the Kingdom of God.

“A church is a group of Christians who assemble as an earthly embassy of Christ’s heavenly kingdom to proclaim the good news and commands of Christ the King; to affirm one another as His citizens through the ordinances; and to display God’s own holiness and love through a unified and diverse people in all the world, following the teaching and example of elders.” - Jonathan Leeman and Collin Hansen, Rediscover Church

The church has purposes that extend upward (worship), outward (witness), and inward (within the church).

7 marks of a biblical church:

- Upward: The church seeks the glory of God.
- Upward: The church is centered on the Word and the Word of God.
- Upward: The church is empowered by the Holy Spirit.
- Outward: The church is divinely called to advance the Kingdom of God in the world.
- Outward: The church is different from the world.
- Inward: The church is a new covenant gathering of believers.
- Inward: The church is united by personal confession in Christ.

“The church itself is not made up of natural ‘friends’. It is made up of natural enemies. What binds us together is not common education, common race, common income levels, common politics, common nationality, common accents, common jobs, or anything else of that sort. Christians come together, not because they form a natural collocation, but because they have all been saved by Jesus Christ and owe Him a common allegiance. In the light of this common allegiance, in the light of the fact that they have all been loved by Jesus Himself, they commit themselves to doing what He says – and He commands them to love one another. In this light, they are a band of natural enemies who love one another for Jesus’ sake.” - D.A. Carson

Challenges to Christians regarding the church:

- There is no such thing as “lone ranger” Christians.
